

A Paris correspondent of the N. Y. Times, in whose statements the editor of that journal places implicit confidence, writes thus:

"Everything has turned upon the success of the great French loan. This immense feat of the nation has shaken Austria, and is the real reason of her new adherence to the Western powers. Louis Napoleon slipped the thong and let loose the hounds of rebellion in Spain; Spain immediately succumbed and gives an army to the Crimea.

Louis Napoleon simultaneously announced to Austria that as she had reduced her forces in the Danubian Provinces, a French army would occupy those places: Austria cedes to the threat, but Louis Napoleon has no intention of trusting to her word. A French army will land at the mouth of the Danube, and a powerful demonstration will be made against the Russian frontier. Napoleon will lead this force in person; it will consist of 110,000 French, with Canrobert, Prince Napoleon & Lord Cardigan as Generals of division.—An English force of 25,000, under Sir Henry Smith, will be added, Lord Cardigan being General of the allied cavalry: Louis Napoleon Commander in chief of the whole. The Emperor is playing the game of Europe with consummate skill. All parties and all powers are exhibiting their weakness and their unpopularity. He alone raises as they descend in the European scale.

"On the departure of Napoleon for the East, an Anglo-French army will be concentrated on the Rhine. To this force will be added the Rhine. To this force will be added the Spanish contingents—the whole under the command of H. R. H., the Duke of Cambridge, while the cavalry command devolves on the Earl of Lucan. This force, professedly stationed as a threat to the German Kingdoms, will in reality watch over the French Empire during the absence of Napoleon.

"The Queen's offer to the Duke of Cambridge of the command in chief in the Crimea was made to be refused by him, to raise his popularity and to become the stepping stone to the above."

Later from Europe.

Arrival of the Canada.

SWEABORG DESTROYED!!

FIVE THOUSAND RUSSIANS KILLED.

HALIFAX, Aug. 29.
Queen Victoria was absent from England on a visit to the Emperor Napoleon.

The war news is of importance, including the destruction of Sweaborg by the allies on the 11th inst, causing immense destruction of property.

The bombardment of Sevastopol is fixed for the 15th.

Sweaborg.—An immense conflagration had prevailed for 49 hours, which destroyed store houses, magazines and arsenals. The powder magazines and stores of projectiles were also blown up. The enemies' loss is enormous. There is nothing said in either the English or French Admiral's dispatch, about the missing ships at Sweaborg. The Allies lost no lives. Two officers and thirty men of the English were wounded.

The Russian army under Seprandi had attacked the allies at the Tcheruya, on the morning of the 16th and after a battle which lasted three hours, were repulsed by the French and Sardinians, with a reported loss of 5,000 killed and 400 prisoners.

The battle of Tcheruya commenced on the 16th. Russians to the number of 60,000 fought for three hours. The Sardinians fought bravely. The Russians lost four or five thousand killed and 400 prisoners. The loss of the Allies is small. The Russians were in complete retreat when the French reserve came up. Omar Pasha had received orders to return to the Crimea, instead of Asia.

Preparations were being made for the reception of Queen Victoria. Napoleon will meet her on Tuesday at Bologna.—The Empress will not be present. Ex-President Fillmore had been presented to Napoleon by Mr. Mason the American minister. There is nothing of the least importance from Spain. Something is said of the Congress of statesman of Vienna, to settle the affairs of Italy, but it is not likely to have effect at present.

India.—The overland mail has arrived bringing dates to July 4th. It is rumored that Persia is still intriguing with Russia, and that the British force in India will be sent to the Persian Gulf.—Affairs in India are tranquil.

Extract of a letter from Cuthbert, Georgia:—
"We are certain to elect Johnson, Democrat, for Governor over both Anselm Know Nothing and Oberly Temperance, and seven out of the eight Congressmen."

"The Democrats and Whigs are quitting the proscriptors and Hindoos by hundreds in every direction."

The decrease of the brandy trade is strikingly illustrated in the absence of all American vessels from the port of Rochelle, France, for the last six months; a fact which is said never to have occurred before. The French papers ascribe it to the failure of the grape crops and the temperance movements in the United States.

There are not five hundred foreign and native Catholic voters in the State of North Carolina, and majority for the Democratic party, as shown by the recent vote, is about seven thousand.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 25.
The fever is still increasing at Norfolk; Mayor Woods is sick; 17 deaths occurred in 24 hours ending at noon yesterday. A number of nurses & Physicians have arrived from other places.

Arrival of the Southern mail, N. Orleans papers of Sunday have been received.

The sloop of war Cyane at Pensacola has been ordered to New York.

Very Good.—Dimmock, of the Sandusky Mirror, is responsible for following: A day or two since a preacher enquired of one of our Democratic friends why we continued to expose and denounce the K. N.'s, in every number of our paper? He said it was disgusting. Our friend replied by asking him why he kept up a continual tirade every Sunday against sin and the devil—it was really becoming disgusting, especially to sinners. He said the devil was the father of Know Nothingism; and while the preacher was denouncing the devil, the editor was exposing his works. Wonder if the preacher had not been bowing to Sam instead of his Maker.

"Give us American politics and American religion."—Kenneth Rayner. We don't know of any American religion except Mormonism, Shakerism, and Millerism. These are native-born American religions. The Christian religion, we believe, is of foreign origin, and its founder not a native of America.—Terre Haute Journal.

From Utah.
St. Louis, Aug. 25.
Dates from Salt Lake to July 1st still represent a threatening of famine there, grain crop destroyed.

Hon. L. Sharer, one of the Judges of the Territory, was found dead in his bed on the 29th of June. He was buried with great ceremony.

On Sunday night, Aug. 26th, at his late residence in Elk tp., Vinton co., O., Robert Bay, Esq., aged about 75 years.

Mr. Bay was one of our oldest and best citizens,—formerly a citizen of Gurnsey county when he settled many years ago. We believe he was a native of Virginia. He was admitted a member of the Bar in that State when quite a young man, but abandoned his profession and engaged in farming.—He leaves a large family connexion to mourn his loss, and died respected by all his friends and neighbors.
